Packing and Shipping:

Packaging and Shipping

Jewelry Display Sets are packaged and shipped securely, using bubble wrap and box material. The box should be sealed with tape and labeled with the customer's name and address.

The box should be placed inside a larger box to protect against potential damage during shipping. The outer box should be labeled with the customer's name and address.

We recommend using a tracked shipping service for Jewelry Display Sets, as it provides customers with peace of mind that their item is being tracked and monitored during transit.
